Seminar Report on “Consumer Awareness” Held on 19th August, 2025

Speaker: (i) Prashkit Pramanik
(ii) Anamika Roy

Venue: Seminar Room, Berhampore College

A seminar on “Consumer Awareness” was organized on 19th August, 2025 at Berhampore College in collaboration with the Assistant Director, Consumer Affairs and Fair Business Practices and the IQAC, Berhampore College.

The programme aimed to sensitize students about consumer rights, responsibilities, and protection laws. The resource person highlighted key provisions of the Consumer Protection Act and discussed important issues such as misleading advertisements, unfair trade practices, online fraud, and grievance redressal mechanisms. Students were informed about the procedure for filing complaints in Consumer Commissions and through online platforms.

During the session, various issues related to consumer affairs were discussed, including:

- Rights and responsibilities of consumers
- Misleading advertisements and unfair trade practices
- E-commerce fraud and online transaction safety
- Filing complaints through consumer courts and online portals
- The importance of bills, warranties, and product labeling
- Redressal mechanisms and grievance procedure

There were 71 active students and teachers participants in the seminar. An interactive session allowed participants to raise queries related to consumer affairs. The seminar was highly informative and helped students understand the importance of being aware, alert, and responsible consumers. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, marking the successful completion of the event.
