Seminar Report on “Consumer Awareness” Held on 19.12.2025

Venue: Seminar Room, Berhampore College

A seminar on “Consumer Awareness” was successfully organized on 19th December, 2025 at Berhampore College in collaboration with the Assistant Director, Consumer Affairs and Fair Business Practices and the IQAC, Berhampore College.

The programme was conducted with the objective of creating awareness among students and faculty members about consumer rights, responsibilities, and protection mechanisms available under Indian law. The seminar witnessed active participation from students and teachers of the college.

The inaugural session began with a welcome address by the Principal of Berhampore College, who emphasized the importance of consumer education in today’s rapidly expanding marketplace. The resource person from the Office of the Assistant Director, Consumer Affairs and Fair Business Practices, Prashkit Pramanik and Anamika Roy delivered an insightful lecture on the Consumer Protection Act, consumer rights, and the role of government agencies in safeguarding public interests.

The speakers also explained the procedure for lodging complaints through the National Consumer Helpline and the Consumer Commission. Real-life examples were shared to help students understand how consumers can protect themselves from exploitation.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks pressing gratitude to the distinguished speaker, organizing members, and participants for making the programme successful. The session proved to be highly informative and enlightening, strengthening awareness about consumer rights and promoting responsible consumer behavior among students.

There were 50 active students and teachers participants in the seminar. Overall, the seminar served as a significant step toward empowering young consumers with knowledge and legal awareness.
