Seminar on the Life and Multifaceted Contributions of Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar

Date: 26 September 2026

Organized by: Berhampore College, Online mode

Occasion: Birth Anniversary of Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar

Speaker: (i) Tapas Mandal, (ii) Manab Ghosh, (iii) Dr. Bidyut Mandal

Berhampore College organized a seminar on Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar on 26 September 2026 to commemorate his birth anniversary and to acquaint students with his life, ideas, achievements, and multifaceted contributions to society.

The seminar was organized by a teacher of the College. Three speakers delivered informative lectures focusing on different aspects of Vidyasagar's life and work. The first speaker discussed Vidyasagar and Sanskrit College, highlighting his association with the institution and his significant contributions to education. The second speaker spoke on Vidyasagar at Karmatar, where he spent a considerable period during the later phase of his life. The lecture highlighted his simple way of life, humanitarian outlook, and concern for the welfare of the local people. The third speaker discussed Vidyasagar as a businessman and his earnings from book royalties. The lecture provided an interesting perspective on his involvement in publishing and business, as well as his contribution to the development of Bengali books and the publishing industry.

The seminar provided students and teachers with an opportunity to understand Vidyasagar beyond his well-known identity as an educationist and social reformer. It highlighted his scholarship, entrepreneurial activities, humanitarian values, and commitment to social welfare.

The programme was informative and enriching and encouraged the participants to reflect on the values and ideals represented by Vidyasagar. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks to the speakers, organizers, teachers, and participants.
